

House Resolution No. 2630

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have dedicated their time and energy to the field of agriculture; and

Whereas, John Romine has distinguished himself through his selection as the 2005 Agricultural Person of the Year by the Centralia Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, a grain and livestock farmer, John Romine is a 1975 graduate of Centralia High School; and

Whereas, John Romine is a deeply involved member of the Centralia community through his participation and membership in Knights of Columbus, Holy Spirit Catholic Church, and the Young's Creek Wild Turkey Chapter; and

Whereas, John Romine also deserves mention of his earlier service as a School Board member; and

Whereas, John Romine is universally praised as a strong supporter of Centralia and the Centralia School District and as a great example of the true American farmer; and

Whereas, the beloved husband of Carolyn, John Romine is justifiably proud also to be known as the loving father of Cassie, Jeb, Abby, Boone, and Jake and as the grandfather of Taylor and Zane:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of John Romine as the 2005 Agricultural Person of the Year by the Centralia Chamber of Commerce and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of John Romine.
